MURPHY SORE ON HERRMANN.

Cubs' Owner Charges Garry with Underhand Work.

Chicago, July 3 .- One of the biggest scandals ever developed in baseball may result from an alleged attempt of the Cincinnati management to tamper with Catcher Kling, of the Chicago National President Murphy to-day openly charges that Garry Herrmann, Ban Johnson president of the American League, and the manager of a billiard company at Cincinnati have conspired to disrupt the Chicago National League team. Murph threatens to appeal to the national commission and to bring a suit for civil dam ages against President Herrmann, of the Cincinnati team.

Kling wants to go to Cincinnati and claims Murphy gave him the right to negotiate with Cincinnati for his release and a trade. This Murphy denies. in Cincinnati in April Kling met the bil-liard people and they opened negotiations with Herrmann for financial backing for a billiard and pool hail.

An attempt was made yesterday to oring Kling, Murphy, and Herrmann together, but Murphy was wild with anger and refused to meet them, which has caused much ill feeling among the parties

Pacers and Trotters Primed for Matinee at Brightwood.

Not in many a day has there been uning-up" going on at the Brightwood race track as has been the case this week, where the trainers have been putting their charges in condition for the matinee to be held this afternoon at 2 clock. It will be in the nature of a elebration of the national holiday by local horsemen, and in the various events carded for the afternoon are the horses of Washington's best known business and professional men.

The entries closed last night at midnight, and it is the expectation that an unusually large number will start. The nominations in the several events have already been announced, in part, and it is stated that the names added will mark starter this afternoon.
